○ 2024 Retreats

- The spring retreat scheduled for April 24-28, 2024 will stay at Somewhere Sewing as planned, with members making their own accommodation reservations.

- Lynn sent an email asking members if they'd be interested in a spot in a cabin and after receiving responses she has booked 2 cabins. Some members have also booked their own cabins. If you're planning on attending the retreat but haven't made accommodation reservations contact Lynn to see if there are spots left in the cabins. Coti will be at "the loft" which is very close to Somewhere Sewing. She has 1 spot available there – if interested in staying there, contact Coti.

- The Fall Retreat is scheduled at The Inn at the Amish Door for September 15-19, 2024. Since the guild has paid a $200 deposit we will retain this location for our Fall Retreat.

- If you're attending this retreat please call The Inn at the Amish Door to make your room reservations (be sure to mention that you're with Cotton Candy Quilt Guild). 330-359-7996
